traced. The object in burning the property is not yet clear to the Board of Managers of the Agricultural Society.

The first attempt to burn the stands was made on Monday night last, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. The second attempt was made last night, with a similar result. Incendiarism was not suspected until the attempt last night, but for some reason a close watch was not kept and the firebugs were finally successful in ribers dastardly work early this morning the cook began preparing breakfast. An hour later, while his attention was called in another part of the boat, some sharks fell from the range and came in contact with a pile of greasy wood. In an instant the wood was in flames.

Capt. Hills happened to be in the kitchen at the fire was speedily extinguished. A volume of several deck hands, the fire was smoke, however, had meanwhile escaped through a stairway which leads from the outside of the kitchen up into the saloon, and many of the people who were there, especially a number of women, became frightened and ran screaming to the other side of the boat there was no hope of saving the fire had made such headway that there was no hope of saving the stands. The firemen were there was no danger, and after numerous explanations, quief was restored.

Capt. Strauss's report says two of his detectives visited Bransfield at the hospital, and he told three separate stories, and finally acknowledged that he did not know who struck him. This, the police claim, completely exonerates Policeman Collins. They think that the injuries were inflicted by the two men with whom he was fighting, and they will endeavor to locate them.

Hooth, and owing to the great distance of the water supply, soon got beyond control and extended towards the city, until the wind fortunately changed.
The territory covered by the fire is about ten acres. On this were 10,000,000 feet of lumber belonging to Mr. Booth, valued at $150,000; six railway cars, with lumber belonging to the Export Lumber Company; the Parry Sound Railway bridge, and the Cedar street public school, valued at $1,000. Several smaller buildings were also burned.

DID NOT SEE BURGLARS. But the Butcher Shop Was Robbed and a Wagon-Lond of Beef Stolen. Capt. Reilly, of the East Fifty-first street station, appeared against Policemen Abraham Phillips and Walter Clark at the trials at Police Headquarters, Commissioner Murray presid-quarters. Commissioner Murray presiding, this morning.

The patroimen were charged with neglect of daily, in falling to discover a burglary in John A. Engel's meat market, at 251 East Fifty-seconth street, on Aug. 15. On the day mentioned the burglars broke in the cellar door, went into the lee-lox and carried off $200 worth of meat, including sides of beef, dressed mutton and veal.

A truck must have been utilized with which to carry away the property, and Capt Reilly told Commissioner Murray that if the policemen had been alert the burglary could not possibly have occurred. Decision was reserved.

Dominico Fresco, twenty-eight years old, of 28 Baxter street, who unreels "Sweet Marie" by the yard on a hand-organ when he is at work, had a day off yesterday. He will have many more too, for he lies in Chambers Street Hospital with a number of knife wounds in his head, which were inflicted by Angelo Marcoti, a saloon-keeper at 15 Baxter street. Fresco went into Marcoli's place about 2.30 this forenoon, and he signalized his entrance by kicking old Glaccomo Reggio in the side. He was plainly looking for trouble, and there is an accommodating coterie of Genosse aiways on hand in Marcoti's to give trouble-scarchers a surfeit of that article.

Presently Fresco and Marcoti began to play cards, and the game hadn't progressed very far when Fresco accused Marcoti of cheating. Then there was a row.

When it was all over Fresco was found with his head gashed in three places, crying out that Marcoti had cut him.

An ambulance was called, and when the policemen began to look for Marcoti as they carted Fresco to the hospital he was nowhere to be found. They are looking for him yet.

Police Capt. Strauss, of the East Sixty-seventh street station, received a report to-day on the alleged clubbing of Thos. Bransfield, eighteen years old, who s at the Presbyterian Hospital with a fractured skull, said to have been caused by Policeman Michael Collins. Bransfield was taken to the station early yesterday morning by the policeman on a charge of being drunk and man on a charge or being drunk and disorderly. He said he saw three men fighting on Seventy-third street and ran towards them. Two of the men ran towards them. Two of the men ran away. He captured Bransfield, and or reaching the station with him found he was injured.
